MISSION SAN DIEGO DE ALCALA, SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

The Mission San Diego de Alcala was founded by Fra Junipero Serra, the first of a chain of 21 Franciscan missions built in California. The Mission suffered a number of Indian attacks and was practically destroyed in 1775. It was rebuilt and continued in active service until the Mexican secularization in 1829. It was restored in 1930 and is now in active use.

So glad as always to get your valentine card Hope your sister is all over her accident
I didnt know anything about Mildred.
Has she been ill?
so hope she is all right again. Fine,
summer weather here & Im in the garden the greater part of the time
Love Maud
